

where we've been...

RASHAYS Campbelltown

Rashays have been in our district for a few years now. The high quality, family style restaurant now has an established presence in Queen Street, Campbelltown and Narellan. Rashays Macarthur Square is the latest addition to the brand.

Kirsty and I were looking for a Friday lunch spot, and I declared in our drive that I had never been to Rashays. A rock star parking spot out the front of Rashays Campbelltown sealed the deal.

We entered to find the restaurant pumping. In retrospect, it was school holidays but I was still impressed. Wait staff found us a table and were seated and presented with a huge menu. It's a book. A picture book! It must cost a fortune to produce. We both decided on a salad. Mine Salt & Pepper Squid and Kirsty's Grilled Chicken. In the pursuit of a more worthwhile review, I opted for a glass of wine to accompany my meal. A crisp NZ sauv blanc was perfect.

Rashay's energetic young staff were excellent. Enthusiasm is always a great start for hospitality workers. We dealt with a number of staff and all of them were pleasant and attentive. It was just a quick, inexpensive lunch but we came away impressed and keen to return.