

where we've been...

THE ARTISAN HOUSE - Narellan Town Centre

The Artisan House Deli & Fine Foods might be a mouthful of a name, but I discovered recently, it's a wonderfully tasty mouthful.

My PA, Kirsty and I had a few people to see around the area and ended up at Narellan Town Centre around lunchtime. Yes there are plenty of options but I like to try a new one whenever I get the opportunity. The Artisan House is an advertiser so that made the decision an easy one.

We perused their menu and the specials board. I love a specials board and decided on the Mushroom and Cacciatore Risotto with a creamy tomato and basil sauce, topped with Danish feta. Kirsty went for Corn and Zucchini Fritters. We both opted for Earl Grey tea.

While we waited for our meals, we entertained ourselves with the scrummy retail goods that surrounded us. Amazing looking Italian cooking sauces, chutneys, stir fry sauces, pastas and jams. Around the other side of The Artisan House stands a full blown deli cabinet. Cheeses, meats and all sorts of amazing delicacies present quite an overwhelming selection process.

Our food arrives and we are immediately struck by the aesthetic. "They look like restaurant meals," I commented. They tasted like restaurant meals too. My risotto was outstanding. Tasty and perfectly cooked it went down a treat with my Earl Grey.

The Artisan House Deli & Fine Foods is presenting food way beyond your typical shopping centre kiosk. Add an excellent deli to the high quality menu and the The Artisan House is a destination for foodies.